- County Judge
- County Clerk / District Clerk
- County Treasurer
- Justices of the Peace #1 and #4
- Commissioner, Precinct 2
- Commissioner, Precinct 4

Filing dates are Nov. 8, 2025, through Dec. 8, 2025.

Detailed information regarding how to file for and campaign for a public office in Texas in 2025 may be found at www.sos.state.tx.us/elections/candidates/guide/2026/index.shtml.

The Texas Ethics Commission requires periodic reports for candidates and office holders:

- File a campaign treasurer appointment with your local filing authority before you file an application for a place on the ballot, announce your intent to run for public office, or solicit or accept contributions or make expenditures.

- If you plan to accept contributions, open a separate bank account that is separate from any other bank account you maintain.

- Begin campaigning for elective office and obtain a place on the ballot. (Contact the Texas Secretary of State or your local elections official for information on ballot access.)

- Check the filing deadlines and timely file all required campaign finance reports, which may include:

- Report is due 15 days after filing Campaign Treasurer appointment (if current office holder)

- Semiannual reports due on Jan. 15 of each year;

- Semiannual reports due on July 15 of each year;

- 30-day pre-election reports;

- Eight-day pre-election reports; and

- Runoff reports.

- Continue filing reports until you file a final report when you expect to have no reportable activity connected with your candidacy. (See "Checklist for Ending my Campaign").
